bofore downed. Stonecipher went through tackle for seven yards, but Portsmouth's line held on the next two downs and Sfonecipher had to punt. Hume caught the ball and returned it ten yards. Peckham gained afteen yards through left tackle and Herbert went through right tackle for seven. Hume got six yards around right end and Frazier bucked centre for four and again for seven yards. Herbert broke through for four yards and the ball was on Baltimore's 15-yard line, where it was lost on a fumble and captured by Stonecipher. Three hard tries at Portsmouth's line failed to gain and it was ours on downs. Peckham, Hume and Herbert gained fifteen yards, where it was lost to Baltimore on downs. The collegians failed to gain by rushes and had to kick, the ball going out of bounds at midfield. Hume advanced it nine yards, then eight more and Peckham made a beautiful run of twenty-eight yards, being downed on Baltimore's 2-yard line. Frazier then took it through the line for a touchdown after eleven minutes of play. Markham punted out to Peckham, who made a fair catch, and Hume kicked the goal.

Hudgins then replaced Hume at right half. Stonecipher kicked off for City College. Portsmouth fumbled and Bionecipher fell on the ball. Baltimore could the ball on downs at their own secured the ball on downs at their own 20-yard line. Captain Parrish, on the first down, gave the ball to Peckham, who, with faultiess interference, ran the whole length of the field for a touchdown. Markham missed the goal. The score was 11 to 0 in Portsmouth's favor.

favor.

Again the ball was brought to the middle of the field and Stonecipher kicked to Frazier on 10-yard line, who took it back twenty yards. Hudgins went around left for fifteen yards and Peckham got fifteen more around right end. Hudgins added another ten yards, and then, by short gains, the ball was taken to Baltimore's 30-yard line, where it was when time was called, ending the first haif.

it was when time was called, ending the first half.

Hickok, Baltimore's crack left end, had his knee strained and could no longer continue in the game, so the captains agreed to Portsmouth giving up a man and continuing with ten men each. Merkle retired; Peed took Riddick's place at right end.

In the second half Stonecipher kicked off to Peed, who returned the ball ten yards. Markham punted to Pugh, who came back five yards. Frazier broke through the line and threw Shaw back four yards. An exchange of punts then gave Baltimore a slight advantage, but they were soon forced to kick again. By steady gains Portsmouth then carried the ball down, the field, when Frazier scored another touchdewn, Markham kicking goal.

Stonecipher kicked to Peckham, who came back twelve yards. Frazier, Hudgins and Herbert advanced it fiteen yards, where Markham was forced to punt. Baltimore again failing to gain on downs, Stonecipher dropped back for a try at goal from field. Herbert broke through and blocked the kick, falling on the ball.

The game ended with the ball on Portsmouth's 35-yard line and the score 17 to 0 in their favor.

HOW THANKSGIVING WAS OB-

SERVED.

Yesterday opened quite pretty, and at an early hour people began to stir; some went gunning, others sought other kinds of sport.

Those religiously inclined attended religious services that were held in a number of the churches. Some attended the matinee in the afternoon. A large crowd went to the football game. The postoffice kept closed most all day; work in the yard and at the S. A. L. shops was suspended; most of the places of business were closed in the afternoon.

At night an entertainment was given at Mr. W. N. White's residence, corner the afternoon.

At night an entertainment was given at Mr. W. N. White's residence, corner of Washington and King streets, which was well patronized. An excellent program had been arranged and was carvied out.

gram had been arranged and was carried out.

At Wri ght Memorial a patriotic entertainment was given. National airs were sung by some of the best singers of this city.

The principal feature was an address by Mr. Hugh Miller, which was listened to with interest. The attendance was very large notwithstanding the inclement weather.

The day was more generally observed than usual.

AN INJUNCTION GRANTED.

An injunction was granted by Judge Prentis, of the Circuit Court, in vacation, late on Wednesday afternoon, restraining H. D. Oliver from destroying a deed by which he conveyed to Mrs. Rosa Simpson lots 22 and 24 at Granby and Thirtieth streets, Park Place, and also restraining him from executing any other deed conveying the lots to any other person. The injunction is sued out by John R. Young, who seeks to recover a debt of $871.42 due him by B. E. Simpson, husband of Mrs. Rosa-Simpson.

THE FIRE ON THE MARCELLUS.

The fire on the Marcellus, which has been burning away the coal for 24 hours, is under control after a hard day's work yesterday. At 5 o'clock work on her was stopped. The commandant did not deem further work necessary. A force of men was kepped by her watching developments. It is thought that there will be no further trouble. The cargo will be removed as soon as possible. The fire is a mystery. This is the second time that this boat has been on fire.

FATHER BRADY WON.

The votes on the benediction stole at the Catholic fair in Norfolk closed Wednesday night. The vote stood as follows:

follows:
Father Doherty, 101, $10.10.
Father Brady, 655, $65.50.
The stole is very handsome, and Father Brady will no doubt feel very proud of it, as he should. It will be given to him today.

"GOLD MINE."

"GOLD MINE."

The above play was repeated last night to a nice-sized audience, and, if possible, was even better than the previous night. Mr. Woodard and the entire company put their whole heart in the play, and the audience showed their appreciation by loud and frequent applause. The management felt much encouraged last night with the attendance. If that is kept up there will be no lack of good shows, and the best that can be gotten.

The narrow conlines of this stolen and scarce that they must needs be stolen. The narrow conlines of this restrict planet are galling to the thief with a masterful ambition, and the example in the matter of breaking away from merely mundane robbery aircady has been set. It remained for a Chicago thief to steal a section of the solar system. He broke into Walker Museum at the University of Chicago one night, not a year ago, and carried off a mass of meteoric iron weighing nearly fifty pounds. One of the members of the department of geology, who was intimately acquainted with the meteor's history, observed with some heat that the "burgiar would have to confess on the judgment day that he had purioined one of the Creator's comest."

From Grand Island, Nob., comes the story of the theft of an entire railroad—rails, thesame rolling stock. It happened that two lines controlled by different companies ran for some distance side by side. One of the magnates, desiring to build a spur to his line, but feeling deterred by the high price of steel, inaugurated a bold policy in the fair name of capansion. A Family Reunion at Mr. E. M. Tilley's Home - An Old Man Decomes Bolsterous

The union Thanksgiving service, held at the Berkley Avenue Baptist Church

A FAMILY REUNION.

A FAMILY REUNION.

As has been his custom for years, Mr E. M. They had his sons and daughters and grandchildren with him in his spacious home last evening, in South Norfolk, where all rejoice to gether as one great family once a year. This event always takes place on Thanksgiving evening. The house had been made ready for the occasion. The array double rooms were converted into one great reception hall, where the little ones had free acress for enjoyment. The dining hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens and the walls were draped with bunting and American flags. Down the centre was a long table spread with the choicest fruits, cake, cream, etc., that one could desire. All partook until the "inner man" was satisfied.

Those of his sons and daughters present were: Mesdames A. H. Martin, J. W. Jones and husband, Poster Black and William M. Tilley and wife. The grand-children were: Barron and

J. W. Jones and husband, Foster Black and William M. Tilley and wife, The grand-children were: Barron and Monroe Black, Coke M. and Edward M. Tilley, Edward T., Westley T., Delha B, and Raymond T. Jones, Miss Mabel and Howard L. Martin, Chapman and William T. Tilley,
There were also present: Miss Alice Dempsey, of Boston; a cousin of Mr. E. M. Tilley, and Rev, and Mrs. Paul Bradley and son, Paul; Mr. W. P. Tilley, a brother of the host, and others. The evening was spent by the little folks in games and other amusements. A Duncan and Japanese party was also indulged in, with Miss Dempsey as lender.

A BOISTEROUS CHARACTER.

An old man by the name of Dan Kelley, of Irish descent, a professional Brick-presser, in the active employment of Walker & Turner, partook too liberally of holiday spirits yesterday and as a result was willing to engage in a fight with the whole upper end of Berkley. He was called down by Officer Grim and placed in the lockup to await the judgment of Mayor Keeling this morning.

itwait the judgment of Mayor Keeling this morning.

Kelley entered the colored department of a salcon on Liberty street, where there was twenty-five or thirty sersons, and engaged the crowd. Some of the men were preparing for business when the proprietor came on the scene. The sight of the proprietor increased the anger of Kelley, who turnen on the proprietor and landed a blow on his head, wherefore the proprietor landed him in the street. Kelley visited another saloon near by and engaged in a row. The proprietor did saged in a row. The proprietor did ted another saloon near by and engaged in a row. The proprietor did him like the first. From this place he went some distance down the street, and began fussing with a well known gentleman. This time he had a bludgeon and chased the man about a block, the gentleman refusing to hit him at first because of his age. Finding that he must fight or be whipped, several rounds followed and the old man came out second best. At this juncture Officer Grim took him in charge. harge.

REV. T. C. SINNER DECLINES A

Yesterday's Baltimore Sun says:
Rev. T. Claggett Skinner, pastor of the
